

Become a Shared Living Provider ( Metro Vancouver)

posAbilities Association of British Columbia is a not for profit organization that supports people with developmental disabilities. We are seeking interested and skilled individuals who looking for an exciting and meaningful opportunity to positively impact someone's quality of life? Are you knowledgeable and able to provide a long-term supportive home?

A Shared Living contractor's role is to:

- Provide a safe, warm, inclusive and healthy environment
- Be a positive role model, offer supports that are respectful and sensitive and provide structure and stability
- Have experience and / or training in supporting persons with developmental disabilities, FASD, Autism, mental health issues, personal care, medical support needs

posAbilities encourages all prospective Shared Living Providers to give thoughtful consideration to, and seek information about, the roles and responsibilities associated with becoming a Shared Living Provider with our organization.

posAbilities is looking for the following:

 Burnaby/Vancouver: a home in one of these areas with its own suite. RB prefers his own space and "light touch" supports. He keeps himself busy during the day, likes his own company, and needs some reminders and support with maintaining his own space.

 Live In Home Share – Langley : Looking for a female or couple to move into a townhome in the Walnut Grove area to support a lady in her 40's who has day supports Monday to Friday, requires personal care, has family involvement and support.

 Live In Home Share – Vancouver: Looking for a caring, positive person to move into A's home in Vancouver. He is in his 50's and has strong family connections, is mild mannered and looking to create a lasting relationship with a positive and calm live in home share provider.

Please submit your cover letter and résumé by email at careers@posAbilities.ca (including a personal email address). Please include a short description of yourself and include your education and / or experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities.

Please note: we thank all applicants for their interest, but only those meeting our criteria will be contacted.

Location: Metro Vancouver

Compensation: as per CLBC contract

October 2021